1 - Applicants for admission to the PhD degree in Experimental Biology and Biomedicine must be:

a) Holders of a Master's Degree (or Pre-Bologna Bachelor's Degree) in Biology, Biochemistry, Medicine, Pharmacy, Biotechnology, Genetics or in another scientific field;

b) Holders of a bachelor's degree, holders of a particularly relevant academic or scientific CV that is recognized as attesting capacity to carry out this cycle of studies by the Academic Board of the Institute for Interdisciplinary Research, in the fields referred to under a);
c) Holders of a school, scientific or professional curriculum that is recognized as attesting capacity to carry out this cycle of studies by the Academic Board of the Institute for Interdisciplinary Research. Applicants must obtain a curricular evaluation equal to or higher than 10 points.

d) Proficiency in English as a working language;

e) The research work should directly involve groups of the CNC in its areas of intervention, and it is therefore important to know these aspects beforehand by the candidates.

2 - The recognition referred to in subparagraphs b) and c) of paragraph 1 only allows access to the cycle of studies leading to a PhD Degree and does not grant its holder the recognition or equivalence to a Bachelor’s or Master’s Degree.

5. Selection criteria:

A) CV Assessment (Weighting 40/100):

Applicant's scientific and academic curriculum. Average calculated by the formula (0.35 x average of 1st cycle course* + 0.35 x average of 2nd cycle course* + 0.30 x merit of the scientific curriculum*).

Where * is evaluated from zero to twenty (0-20) points; integrated master multiplied by 0.7

Relevant experience: scientific experience with laboratory skills and production of results in scientific fields relevant to the Programme.

0-9 - No adequate training in fields relevant to the Programme and no relevant scientific experience;

10-12 - Adequate training, with no relevant experience;

13-15 - Adequate training, with relevant experience;

16-17 - Adequate training, with relevant experience and with communications at conferences;

18-20 - Adequate training, with relevant experience and with communications at conferences and with scientific publications.

B) Motivation Letter (Weighting 10/100):

0-9 - Applicant is not able to express a mature and specific scientific interest in the Programme;

10-16 - Applicant is able to express a mature scientific interest, not necessarily in a concrete way, in the Programme;
17-20 - Applicant is able to express a mature scientific interest, specifically appropriate to the Programme and in its areas of intervention.

0-9   - Applicant with no recommendation or considered below average;
10-12 - Applicant with no apparent recommendation or neutral recommendation;
13-16 - Applicant with recommendation, but without indicating the profile as being appropriate for the Program
17-18 - Applicant with recommendation, and with indicating the profile as being appropriate for the Program
19-20 - Applicant with strongly recommendation, and with indicating the profile as being very appropriate for the Program

D) Interview Assessment (Weighting 40/100).
   Jury: Ana Luísa Carvalho, Nuno Empadinhas, Paulo Oliveira.

   4 points – communication and oral expression, including English language proficiency
   6 points - motivation and interest for the Program
   6 points - ability to analyze, critical sense and articulation of research perspectives
   4 points – knowledge of the Program and the institution

Applicant will be ranked according to the weighted average of the classification obtained in each of the 4 criteria, translated by the following formula:

\text{Final Classification} = (0.4 \times A) + (0.1 \times B) + (0.1 \times C) + (0.4 \times D)

Regarding the access referred to in sub-paragraph c) of paragraph 1 of the conditions of admission the application evaluator assesses the CV of applicants and rates it on a scale of 0 to 20 following the criteria i) to iv) and their respective weights:

i) School curriculum, considering the final classification of the course (s) taken by the applicant (20%);
ii) Relevance of the course (s) taken to the scientific area of the study cycle to which you they are applying (10%);
iii) Scientific Curriculum, considering the participation of applicants in congresses, seminars, research projects, number and scientific quality of publications (monographs, book chapters, articles in periodicals), prizes and similar elements, as long as these activities are developed in the scientific area of the study cycle in question (50%);
iv) Professional curriculum, considering the duration and nature of the professional activity in the scientific area of the study cycle in question (20%).

NOTE: Assessed applications that have a grade lower than 9.5 in one of the evaluation criteria will automatically become non-approved.
