4. Admission requirements:

1 - Applicants for admission to the PhD on Steel and Composite Construction must be:

a) Holders of a master's degree in Metallic and Mixed Construction or any other appropriate training, namely, Civil Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Naval Engineering, Architecture, or legal equivalent;

b) Holders of a bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Naval Engineering, Architecture, or another degree with appropriate training with at least 5 years of academic training in Higher Education, full time, or equivalent when it comes to the degree obtained abroad;

c) In duly justified cases, holders of a school, scientific or professional curriculum relevant for pursuing this cycle of studies as recognized by the scientific Committee of FCTUC. Applicants must obtain a curricular evaluation equal to or higher than 10 points.

2 - The recognition referred to in subparagraphs b) and c) of paragraph 1 only allows access to the cycle of studies leading to a PhD Degree and does not grant its holder the recognition or equivalence to a Bachelor's or Master's Degree.

5. Selection criteria:

The applicant's score ranges from 0 to 20 points and is obtained by: $N = A \times 4/6 + B \times 1/6 + C \times 1/6$ being:

A- Quality of the academic and professional background:

A1 - Average grade of degree;

A2 - Professional experience;

A3 - Prior education;

B -Commitment to the new course;

C- Duration of studies at the University of Coimbra.

Regarding the access referred to in sub-paragraph c) of paragraph 1 of the conditions of admission the application evaluator assesses the CV of applicants and rates it on a scale of 0 to 20 following the criteria i) to iv) and their respective weights:

i) School curriculum, considering the final classification of the course(s) taken by the applicant (64%);

ii) Relevance of the course(s) taken to the scientific area of the study cycle to which you they are applying (12%);

iii) Scientific Curriculum, considering the participation of applicants in congresses, seminars, research projects, number and scientific quality of publications (monographs, book chapters, articles in periodicals), prizes and similar elements, as long as these activities are developed in the scientific area of the study cycle in question (12%);

iv) Professional curriculum, considering the duration and nature of the professional activity in the scientific area of the study cycle in question (12%).

NOTE: Assessed applications that have a grade lower than 9.5 in one of the evaluation criteria will automatically become non-approved.
