Political Economy II
Class
1st Class
Responsible academic staff member (teacher's full name)
Luís Pedro Chaves Cunha
Syllabus (1000 characters available)
The program consists of an analysis and description of the evolution of the economic systems, starting with 'primitive comunism' down to the most recent capitalism. In this connection, current issues such as regulation, globalization and regional integration, as well as a comparison between keynesianism and neomonetarism, will be discussed as well. The remaining topics are macro- and microeconomics, particularly: national accounting, markets and prices.
